Esti Fény was shining in Kincsem Stakes

Derby-winner Esti Fény found no rival in the most prestigious race, Kincsem Stakes, of the 2018 International Meeting. Entrants were vying for the hefty purse of EUR 40.000 in the 2400-metre battle, but all in vain, since the Bábolna-bred three-year-old colt blasted home with ease in front of his Czech and Slovak challengers, proving extra class. Esti Fény, trained by Csaba Zala and ridden by Tamás Nagy launched his attack in the final 400 metres and beat Portorikos with Jirí Palík and Rose Fire with Djordje Perovic on board.

The superb mile-race, Zakariás Aperiaonov Memorial Stakes – Imperiál Stakes brought the fierce clash of three giants. Rather surprisingly, Captaine Fregatte (Lajos Fejes, jr.) with his best ever form was faster than the veteran Silent Blessing (Jaroslav Línek) and Bíborhajnal (Tamás Nagy), the grey filly.

Superstar Tour To Paris remained unbeaten after the 1000-metre Tattersalls Overdose Stakes in the hands of Jaroslav Línek. The eighth consecutive win for the wonderful bay colt. Having not found a match in the region the management is looking for a race abroad for the next season.

The surprise of the day was the winner of Mihály Kovács Memorial Stakes – Hungarian Grand Prix. Over 2400 metres three-year-old Hungarian-bred horses came to the stalls with Selyemkő being the fastest and becoming a great prospect for the future.

Overdose

The super-class colt put Hungary back on the map of the world of horse racing, a true heir of Kisbér, Kincsem and Imperiál. Having an exceptional ability to launch into a race, he was voted Best 3-Year-Old Sprinter of Europe in 2008. The same year, he became the third best sprinter in the world.

Ruling the world was only a short reach away. Laminitis and many injuries prevented Overdose to show what he really was destined to achieve. He fought sickness courageously and returned to the turf, nevertheless. He won many races again, and got very close to the echelons of Europe. After winning 14 races out of 14, he met defeat in Baden-Baden.

As only the mightiest would do, he said farewell to the world of racing in Rome with a victory in the hands of Frankie Dettori.

Hungarian breeding was looking forward to having Overdose in stud. He was standing in the National Stud in Diópuszta from 2014, serving the noble cause of Hungarian racing through one season only. He was transferred to a lesser German stud afterwards where he met his end shortly afterwards.

Imperiál, a legend of the 20th century

The second sire of Imperiál, Intermezzo II. (Caissot – Alcyone) was found after World War II near a Hungarian provincial town, Martonvásár, pulling a plough. He was also used in a cart. The conformation and will of the eye-catching horse was not broken by hard work, involving coal delivery.

Intermezzo II. was running various forms in 1946 as a two-year-old. He achieved many victories, but was not able to beat his fierce rival, Minci, the wonderful filly, not even in the Hungarian Derby. Dark times followed. Despite that, he was registered as a sire and eventually he covered his rival, Minci, resulting in the progeny of Imi, the sire of Imperiál. Imi was brought up in the National Stud in Dióspuszta under the watchful eyes of people whose apprentices are still at work today.

Imi grew into a glamorous yearling. His keenness and ability were features that he kept as a two-year-old. In his second season at the track, he became even stronger, winning multiple of races. At his age of three he very easily beat the crème de la crème of the Eastern Block at the Grand Prix of Socialist Countries. The legs got the better of him though, so Imi had to retire to stud to Apáti-puszta Stud near Kisbér. He sired many a useful horse, but the breakthrough was Imperiál. As a two-year-old, Imperiál ruled the racecourses of the Continent with his stature and exceptional abilities.

The other strand of the story reaches back to Italy, to November 1958. György Banos és János Pál travelled to the peninsula in order to acquire some horses in order to better Hungarian breeding. Having a light purse, they managed to get a sire and two mares in foal, all with supreme pedigrees. The two mares, Hurry and Statira went to Kisbér Stud. In the next season, József Rádoki mated Hurry with the superb Imi, a horse born and bred in the fertile lands of Hungary. The offspring came to this world on 14 February 1960, clumsy, ponderous and ungainly, with four white socks.

As the daily routine of the first man of the stud, József Rádoki commanded, the foals spent lots of time outdoors with their dam from the very first moment. Beginning at 800-1000 metres a day, their distance to walk was raised consequentially, which was of pivotal importance according to the regime of the manager, an idea that paid off in the future. Rádoki used this method not only with gallop horses, but with trotters as well. Out of 22 horses, 20 won races as a 2-year-old, in average.

The National Stud wanted Zakariás Aperianov to train Imperiál. The process began in the autumn of 1961. The Golden Steed saw the turf in Balatoni Stakes first time out in the hands of Imre Nagy. Top jockeys Ferenc Németh and Mihály Gelics followed on board in Hungary and abroad. Imperiál and young Zakariás Aperianov excelled. The stature, ability and talent of Imperiál was coupled with calmness, composure and tranquillity. All that one can wish for in a thoroughbred. His huge stride desolated any opponents. His start was always not ideal, but the velocity he made up for it in fractions of a second left jaws drop. He was able to front the field any time he wanted. His wide chest, muscular back and rear-end along with his superbly cut legs made him to be one of a kind. In his impeccable coat five marks were made by the forces, God, we say in this part of the world. On the four legs and the face.

Imperiál won all his races in Hungary. Four out of four in 1962, four out of four in 1963, three out of three in 1964. In his foreign campaign as a two-year-old, he won twice in Prague and one time in the Kaiserstadt, Vienna, an eternal witness of the brilliance of Hungarian horsemanship. One more year followed with two other Viennese victory, among them the Austrian Derby. Berlin was within reach of a success, as well. Baden-Baden should not have been forced, but only days after the fiasco, every jockey could only watch the back of Ferenc Németh and the chestnut colt in Budapest.

At the end of the season, Imperiál flew to America to race in the Washington, D. C. International Stakes. A move that should have been avoided.

As a 4-year-old he won in München, Malmö and Hamburg, and came second in Düsseldorf in Hansa-Preis. His last race was in the Grosser Preis von Baden on 30 August 1964. Never did one see him on the turf again. He retired to Kerteskö Stud. He had 350 progeny. One of his best, Princ Ippi, won Preis von Europa in the silk of Gestüt Röttgen. Imperiál became a multiple sire champion, many of his offsprings won the Hungarian Derby.

Zakariás Aperianov (1927-2015)

Upon the occasion of the International Meeting, we bowed our heads to Zakariás Aperianov, the best Hungarian trainer of all times, a legend of Hungarian horse racing.

Zakariás Aperianov began his career as an apprentice in 1939. He rode his first race in 1941. A decade passed by and turf fans greeted him as a trainer, his very enthusiastic and energetic approach left a mark in many races. A great number of successes followed and by the autumn of 1961 he had the best horse of the 21st century, Imperiál. A yearling at the time though, that no one was aware of. Not an eye-catching colt, most people said, but Aperianov made the best of the chestnut, winning the Hungarian Derby and the Austrian Derby in 1963. The Master as Aperianov has been referred to ever since won 17 Hungarian Derbys, a world record in his own right. He completed 60 years in racing when finally retired, lauded by many generations and indeed, a grateful nation.

His father, a Russian prisoner of war of the Great War, a simple cobbler who adored racing, was dreaming about having a boy and turning him into a jockey. He had two daughters already. On 8 February 1927 Zakariás was born. The lively kid was called Pubi by his mother. The name stuck until the very last days (adding "bácsi" a way of showing respect in the Hungarian language). On 10 August 1939, Pubi, a young lad with the weight of a feather at the time, began his apprenticeship in the yard of Count János Pejacsevich, a highly respected trainer. It was a privilege for anyone just to be said good morning by the count. Pubi bácsi rode in his race after two years went by, the usual time span at the time. In 1941, the day came to mount for young Zakariás who wore the dress of Count Rudolf Erdódy, president of the Hungarian Jockey Club. We still remember the name of the steed: Daru. It was all he dreamed of.

He had to wait two more years for the first win aboard Caracalla.

History interfered. Raging World War II put an end to the plans of a rising star. A nation was brought to its knees, the Master never surrendered though. While saving thoroughbreds from the invading forces, he was captured after a fierce battle and sent to the Soviet Union as a prisoner of war. A strange repetition of destiny, one could say, in the inverse. Back in Hungary and a free man again, Zakariás Aperianov could not maintain his original weight. Winning some races nevertheless, he finished riding for good in 1952. An ever ambitious character, and the survivor of many a hardship, he acquired a licence for training in January 1953. Little did anyone know, that it was the beginning of one of the most glorious careers in the history of racing. Instead of the colourful silk Pubi bácsi grabbed the stopwatch and the binoculars. Needless to say, his humble attitude, his expertise and love for horses remained the same. A fearless jockey, he could always judge the performance of his riders.

He started out with 12 horses. His first win as a trainer came in 1953 with Tibor Farkas on board of Gazember (strange, but the name translates Villain).

His first significant horse was Balkán, then came Bakony and Direktor. Imperiál, the very best arrived shortly after. Still a beginner, at a mere 34 years of age, Aperianov had the wonderful colt in his yard in the autumn of 1961. Imperiál, a large colt by all means, with four socks, a wide blaze, not to mention the pig-eye was nothing of a promise, however, his name echoed in Western Europe and the United States later on.

"The Golden Steed" as Pubi bácsi was calling his colt, was born on 15 February 1960 in Kisbér Stud, managed by József Rádoki. Out of the Italian mare Hurry, sired by Imi, Imperiál left an everlasting mark on Hungarian racing. Imperiál was not only celebrated by tens of thousands of Hungarian turf lovers, but he was also praised by the top leaders of political life of the era. One is bound to say the latter was the most important bit, because it legalised the very existence of the otherwise aristocratic sport, trying to survive. Survived we have. So have the progeny of Imperiál. Fifteen more of them was given the Blue Ribbon. All possessing the same stamina and crede.

The pinnacle moment came when Bilbao won the Triple Crown for Zakariás Aperianov. We shall certainly not forget to mention the 16-length-win of Try Star in the Hungarian Derby, let alone the first private winner of the Hungarian Derby, the bay Alfonz for breeder Mihály Kovács, after the Iron Curtain fell.

Apart from being the trainer of the most Derby-winners in the world, there are many more records to beat for future generations, if at all it is possible. Up to our days, Pubi bácsi still has the most stakes wins in Hungary and he still heads of the trainers' statistics. It also did happen that he had five horses running in one day, and all five won. After being a trainer for over 56 years, he decided to retire with dignity and his head held up high.

German and Slovenian wins in the September stakes

Josef Franzl came, see and conquered in the 2018 József Marschall Memorial Stakes. His five-year-old Azimut scorching at 13.1 won the 30.000-Euro 1800-metre Group III race easily by four lengths in an international field. The Slovenian Paolendry Like (Marko Slavic) and the Austrian Global Player (Erich Kubes) were the runners up. The best Hungarian horse was Timoteo (Veljko Mazsity) coming sixth at 14.9.

Favourites ruled the long-distance Hungária Stakes. The Slovenian guest Eros Josselyn (Joze Sagaj) who had raced superbly in French races was extremely strong indeed and won hands down in front of Zeal Di Girifalco (Veljko Mazsity) and the German Desert King (Jozef Franzl).

Hungarian sprinters were vying in the 1900-metre István Szegedy Memorial Stakes, with serial winner Urán Lady winning the trophy in the hands of Veljko Mazsity. Tactics ruled, and the couple gave no chance to Conway Boko (Tibor Hajnal) and Milliondollar Lux (Emil Csordás).

Greyhounds

Deadshot fought on in Lyreen Mover Stakes

The attention was focused on greyhounds on Friday, the opening day of the International Meeting. The feature race was Lyreen Mover Stakes in memoriam of the second placed dog of the Wimbledon Greyhound Derby. The favourite prevailed. Unbeaten for quite a long while, Deadshot, trained by Ádám Baranyai won very easily in a superb field, beating the strong Dynamo and Best Bolt.

The daughter of Lyreen Mover, Coming Soon was the heroin of the 250-metre sprint race. Owned by the Molnár Family, the renowned trotter owners, the greyhound won yet another victory for her proud holders.

Fixtures at Kincsem National Horse Racing Ltd. for the year 2018

Kincsem National Horse Racing Ltd. reserves the right to change the conditions and venue of the races mentioned below, even after the closure of entries.

The entries from abroad to Hungary can only be done at the relevant racing authority and at the relevant racing secretary on the "Racing Operations" form.

Fax number: +36-1-433-05-21, e-mail: tamas.csapkovits@kincsempark.hu

If the official racing record card (list of performances) doesn't arrive till the entry closing date and all entry fees and starting fee are not paid (or they are unable to confirm the transfer) till the deadline written in the proposition (condition of the race), in this case the entry is not valid and the entered horse loses his right to start in the race. The amount of entry fee paid after the deadline is the double of the entry fee paid on time. If more than 13 (all-weather course) or 16 (turf) horses are entered, those horses will firstly fall out which were entered after the closing date, then secondly the horses with the least total earnings in 5 last runs.

Please note, that for non-Hungarian trained horses, Kincsem Nemzeti Ltd. reserves the right to deduct 5% of the prize money won.
